

CHC33021 CERTIFICATE III IN INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT (Ageing and Disability)

Existing workers in this industry

Give back to the community and turn your passion for helping others into a fulfilling career.

Gain the theoretical knowledge and practical skills essential for providing person-centred support to people who require assistance due to ageing or disability. The CHC33021 Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing and Disability) is a nationally recognised qualification providing you with the confidence needed to gain employment in a range of care and support roles.

Employment opportunities include:

- Disability care
- Personal care
- Community, home or residential care
- Other care and assistive roles

Delivery and duration

- 39 week (9 months) mixed mode online course
- 2 days mandatory attendance in class per month at one of our sites
- Online study through weekly webinars with a trainer (synchronous, real-time learning and self-directed learning online)
- 15 units (subjects) including 9 core and 6 electives
- Class times - 8.30am-4.30pm
- Students may need to spend 10 hours per week on research and self-directed learning from the course materials (including completing assessments)

Eligibility criteria

To be eligible, you must:

- Be aged 15 years or older, and no longer in school
- Permanently live in Queensland
- Be an Australian or New Zealand citizen, Australian permanent resident (includes humanitarian entrants), or a temporary resident with an eligible visa subclass
