

Support to live on your own terms

STEPS ILO helps you design the assistance you need to live in the home that best suits you. We're here to help you find more flexibility, independence and control.

About ILO

- Design a living arrangement designed around you, your needs and your goals
- Work with a dedicated ILO Coordinator who provides steady, reliable support every step of the way
- Access funding through your NDIS plan, or self-fund with STEPS
- Collaborate closely with your family and support network to create a custom long-term plan

Benefits for you

- Choose where and how you live, with supports designed around what matters most to you
- Understand your options, make informed decisions and feel confident about your living arrangement
- Build a setup that supports your independence while giving you the help you need, whenever you need it
